Rental Agreement
for
Non-University of Washington Community Clients

1. RENTER INFORMATION

Organizational Name: _____
(hereafter "Renter")

Address: _____

Telephone Number: _____

Email: _____

Primary Contact Person: _____

2. EVENT INFORMATION

Name: _____
(hereafter "Event")

Date(s): _____

Estimated Attendance: _____

General Description: _____

3. SUMMARY OF STEPS REQUIRED TO RESERVE A DATE AT MEANY CENTER

- Contact Meany Center regarding availability of desired date(s).
- Obtain Use of University Facilities Approval (see section 4 below.)
- Submit $500 deposit for each date desired (see section 5.B. below.)
- Sign a Rental Agreement with Meany Center for the Performing Arts.

4. UUF APPROVAL

- A. Regardless of any other provision in this contract, Renter shall not be entitled to use Meany Center unless the usage has been approved by the University of Washington Use of University Facilities (UUF) Committee.

- B. To obtain approval by the UUF Committee, non-University of Washington entities must secure preliminary approval for their event by a unit within the university. Such preliminary approval implies that a responsible official at the University has applied their professional judgment to the content of the program, the qualifications of the individuals conducting the event, the manner of the presentation and has concluded that the event is consistent with the teaching, research, and/or public service mission of the University.
- C. Renter must complete the online Use of University Facilities ("UUF") form found Request Form at UUF Form | Office of Special Programs. The form must include the name and email address of the dean, director, or chairperson of the sponsoring unit. The completed form is submitted electronically. Notification of approval or denial of the UUF request will be made via email.

5. DEPOSIT, PAYMENTS AND CANCELLATION FEE

- A. Meany Center will charge a deposit of $500 for each individual date Renter seeks to reserve. The deposit must be sent to Meany Center with the signed deposit and will apply towards the cost of the event or to the cost of the cancellation fees, as applicable.
- B. In addition to payment of the deposit:
 - Renter must remit one-half of the estimated charges (see section 6.C. below) at least thirty (30) days prior to the event.
 - If Renter has never rented Meany Center, Renter must remit the remaining balance of the estimated charges at least one week prior to the event.
- C. After the event has concluded, Meany Center will send Renter an invoice for actual charges. Renter must remit the balance of actual charges, if any, within 30 days of invoice date. Renter agrees to pay any finance charges, late fees and all collection fees, including attorney costs, on amounts not received by Meany Center within 30 days of invoice date.
- D. After Meany Center has confirmed your date, if an event is canceled, cancellation charges will apply as follows:
 - Cancel 181 days or more before the event: Cancellation fee = $1,000 per date scheduled.

- Cancel 91-180 days before the event: Cancellation fee = $1,500 per date scheduled.
 - Cancel 31-90 days before the event: Cancellation fee = 75% of the total estimated cost of the event.
 - Cancel 0-30 days before the event: Cancellation fee = 100% of the total estimated costs of the event.
 - A rescheduling request will be considered by Meany Center only if it is made 180 days or more before the event and a mutually agreeable date is available on the calendar. Otherwise, cancellation fees apply.
- E. Payments by check will be processed electronically by using the information on the check to create an electronic funds transfer (EFT). For each check tendered in connection with this rental, Renter hereby authorizes the university to withdraw funds in the amount and from the bank account indicated on the check. Canceled checks will not be returned because the checks must be destroyed after the EFT has been made.
- F. Renter's obligation to make payment shall not be excused by any illness or incapacity of any performer.

6. CHARGES FOR FACILITY, LABOR & EQUIPMENT

- A. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are Meany Center's facility, labor and equipment rates.
- B. After the date for the Event has been reserved (see section 3.), Meany Center will schedule a production meeting with a representative for the Renter who is authorized to financially obligate the organization. The Renter's representative should come to the production meeting with a clear understanding of the Renter's specific event needs. At the conclusion of this meeting, Meany Center will provide to Renter an "Estimate of Charges and Schedule of Payments" which Renter's representative shall sign upon presentation.
- C. The signed "Estimate of Charges and Schedule of Payments" shall become Exhibit 2 to this Agreement.
- D. The Estimate in Exhibit 2 will note that it is based on the specifications provided by Renter at the production conference, and that the actual charges may vary if the Renter makes changes to its specifications or times. The final cost of renting Meany Center will be based on the Renter's actual level of usage of the facility, labor and equipment at the rates shown in Exhibit 1, as well as any other direct costs incurred on behalf of the Renter.

- E. Meany Center will provide stage technicians, house managers, ushers and any other persons the Meany Center Senior Director of Operations & Planning deems necessary for the security and logistical operation of the event. Meany Center will determine the actual number of staff required. Renter volunteers may not be substituted for any Meany personnel.

7. SELLING TICKETS

- A. Renter is responsible for selling tickets for the event. Before tickets can go on sale, Meany Center must approve renter's ticketing plan, ticket sample* and renter must provide City of Seattle Admission Tax documentation (see B, C & D of this section and Exhibit 3 for more information.) *All tickets must show presenter, event name, event date and time, theater name and address, established price, service charge and admissions tax if applicable, and total price on both ends of a perforated ticket. General Admission tickets if priced by section must be color coded or the section row numbers must be printed on ticket. Reserved tickets must also show the door letter, row letter and seat number on both ends of ticket.
- B. Ticket sales may be subject to the City of Seattle admissions tax. For more information, go to Admission Tax - License and Tax Administration | seattle.gov on the City of Seattle website.
- C. Renter must provide Meany Center with either a copy of its Certificate of Registration for Admission Tax issued by the city or a Certificate of Exemption as proof that it is exempt from having to obtain such a registration. This documentation must be provided prior to tickets going on sale.
- D. Renter is solely responsible for the collection and remittance of admission taxes. Renter agrees to fully indemnify the University of Washington for any and all expenses Meany Center might incur in connection with an assessment of Admission Taxes by the City of Seattle, including but not limited to reimbursement to the University if it remits the taxes, the fair market value of time spent by the University or its legal counsel in responding to an inquiry by the City of Seattle as to whether the proper amount of Admissions Tax was remitted for Renter's event, and any legal costs associated with such an inquiry.
- E. Renter may not print, sell or give away more tickets than the capacity of Meany's mainstage Katharyn Alvord Gerlich Theater, which is 1201, plus 4 wheelchair spaces. "Standing room" and sitting on aisle steps in Meany Center are prohibited.

- F. Contact information must be available to patrons to arrange for disability accommodations. This information should be provided in all marketing materials as well as all ticket sales locations.
- G. Renter must reserve twelve (12) tickets for Meany Center's use, and if the event is reserved seating, the following seats are required: R2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12: N29, 31, 33, 35: and O33, 35. These twelve (12) tickets must be sent to Meany Center with the first scheduled payment. Meany Center retains six (6) seats for our Font of House to use to solve last minute ticketing problems throughout the event, but will return other unneeded tickets to Renter at the Box Office no later than one-half hour prior to the event.
- H. Meany Center reserves the right to require hand-stamps for re-entry or a no re-entry policy for the event. If a no re-entry policy is in force, this policy must be printed on each ticket.
- I. Meany Center Box Office space is available to Renter at no charge one and one-half hours prior to event. Renter must provide staff and change fund. Renter must staff the night-of-show Box Office at least one hour prior to curtain and thirty (30) minutes after the event begins to serve late-comers.

8. PARKING

Limited covered parking is available underneath the theater in the Central Parking Garage located at 15th Avenue NE at NE 41st Street. Fees may apply. For more parking information visit: Parking | Transportation Services Other paid parking is available in the area. We encourage patrons to arrive 30 minutes prior to the performance, or to take one of the many buses that come right to campus or Link light rail. For more information, visit: Getting to UW | Transportation Services

9. LOBBY SALES

- A. Renter must request permission from the Director of Audience Services, Nancy Hautala (bnancy@uw.edu) to use the Meany Center lobby to sell performance related merchandise at least two (2) weeks in advance of the event. The charge for this usage, if agreed to, is 15% of net proceeds (gross proceeds less sales tax) payable at the conclusion of the event by check payable to the University of Washington or by cash. Sales tax on the gross will be paid by Meany Center. Please note that COVID-19 protocols may impact Merchandise sales.

- B. Raffles and donations are not considered lobby sales and Meany Center does not collect a percentage of the proceeds. Donations are defined as voluntary gifts of money and are not in exchange for goods. Items sold for a defined “suggested donation” amount are considered lobby sales.
- C. Renter shall permit Meany Center to conduct a pre and post event inventory of merchandise to verify merchandise sales.
- D. Renter must provide seller, a change fund and cash box. Complimentary tables for lobby sales are included in this rental agreement.
- E. Meany Center assumes no responsibility for security of inventory.

10. FOOD AND BEVERAGE SALES

Meany Center retains exclusive rights to sell food and non-alcoholic beverages in and about the theater premises at all times. Under no circumstances will food or beverages be permitted in the seating areas within the theater.

11. RECEPTIONS, COMPLIMENTARY FOOD AND BEVERAGES

- A. All receptions and the provision of complimentary food and beverages are at the sole discretion and control of Meany Center. No food or drink is allowed in the seating area of the theater. If Renter desires to offer complimentary food or beverages or have a reception at which food or alcohol is to be served, Renter must make the request to Director of Audience Services, Nancy Hautala (bnancy@uw.edu) at least four (4) weeks in advance of the event.
- B. If Meany Center approves the request, please see information on Reception Exhibit 4 with instructions for obtaining a food permit.
 - If Meany agrees to allow alcoholic beverages, obtain additional university authorization and a separate permit from the state.
 - <https://uwspecialprograms.org/alcohol-service/alcohol-service-for-m/>
 - <http://www.liq.wa.gov/licensing/banquet-permits>
 - In Accordance with Seattle Municipal Code 21.36.086, Meany Center requires all clients to provide reusable or compostable service ware for all receptions or food related events. All compostable ware must be a Cedar Grove approved commercial product, a list of which can be found at:
 - <http://www.cedar-grove.com/commercial/accepted-items/>

- C. Consistent with University policies toward events opened to the public: persons under 21 years of age may attend the function if there are effective safeguards to prevent the consumption of alcohol beverages by minors. Direct supervision of these safeguards is the responsibility of the rental client.
- D. Please see the Reception/Special Event Information sheet, attached hereto as Exhibit 4, for more information on receptions.

12. DELIVERIES

Renter must schedule all deliveries at least 48 hours in advance of the event by contacting the Technical Director Tom Burke (tdburke@uw.edu) at 206-543-5727.

13. PRINTED PROGRAMS

All printed programs need to be delivered to the Meany Center lobby at least one and one-half hours before an event begins.

14. DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS

To be compliant with federally required disability accommodations and venue access; Rental Clients must ensure that designated seats, companion seats and seat access are kept available for those with disabilities. Currently, Meany's Katharyn Alvord Gerlich Theater has four (4) wheelchair spaces available in the main seating area. For those unable to negotiate stairs, seating is available in Rows M and R on the main floor and row HH in the balcony. Accessible restrooms are only located in the lower lobby via elevator. It is required that Rental Clients retain these seats for disabled patron's access when making plans for facility usage. As such, disability accommodations must be addressed in any ticketing plan.

15. REQUIREMENTS FOR THIRD PARTY-LED YOUTH PROGRAMS

Third party-led youth programs that use University facilities must meet or exceed the requirements of Administrative Policy Statement 10.13 Requirements for University and Third Party Led Youth Programs, including, without limitation:

- A. Ensuring that all personnel with youth supervisory, custodial, chaperone, or caregiving responsibilities, or with unsupervised access to youth:

- Have successfully completed criminal background checks,
 - Are sufficiently trained to provide safe and developmentally appropriate care for youth,
 - Abide by UW standards for safely interacting with youth (University Standards for Interacting with Youth | Youth at UW), and
 - Report to the proper authorities, in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations, any suspected child abuse, neglect, or other behaviors of concern,
- B. Maintaining safe environments to prevent injury,
- C. Having procedures in place to respond to emergencies and known health needs of youth, and
- D. Safeguarding the privacy of youth while in their care.

Note on Restroom Use: When youth are using public bathrooms, youth programs must utilize the “rule of three” supervision, e.g., two adults with one or more children, or one adult with two or more children.

Specific definitions for the above requirements can be found on the UW’s Administrative Policy Statement webpage.

<https://www.washington.edu/admin/rules/policies/APS/10.13.html>

16. CONTROL OF FACILITY

- A. Meany Center’s facilities shall be at all times under the control of the Meany Center Senior Director of Operations & Planning and authorized staff, including the Technical Director or Technician in Charge for the backstage areas, and the House Manager for the Front of the House. The House is not opened, nor does an event begin, without the permission of the Technician in charge.
- B. Meany Center reserves the right to require Renter to provide and pay for security from a licensed, bonded and insured agency that is approved by Meany Center.
- C. Meany Center is a multi-purpose facility. Any and all members of the University of Washington community so designated by the Meany Center Executive Director, have the right to enter Meany Hall at any time.

- D. No persons will be allowed backstage during the event unless they are members of the on-stage company, Renter representatives or Meany Center staff.
- E. Meany Center reserves the right to display UW sponsorship signage and other promotional materials in Meany Hall and surrounding lobby areas. In addition, limited space is available for client sponsorship signage and other promotional materials.
- F. Smoking is not permitted in Meany Center, or on the University of Washington campus.
- G. Helium balloons are not allowed in the lobby, stage or seating area of Meany Center.

17. SAFETY AND LIABILITY

- A. Renter must ensure that the use of Meany Center is carried out in a manner that assures the safety for all persons concerned including compliance with the safety and liability provisions included in the UUF.
- B. Renter permission to use Meany Center is granted with the express understanding and condition that Renter assumes responsibility for any loss, damage, or claims arising out of such use.
- C. Meany Center adheres to COVID-19 prevention guidelines and protocols set forth by the University of Washington and King County Public Health. By signing this contract you are agreeing to also adhere to these guidelines and protocols and understand that COVID-19 safety protocols may change between the time of signing a contract and the event itself. Information on UW policies and guidelines can be found at the UW's website COVID-19 Health and Safety | EHS.
- D. As determined by Meany Center, when the event involves physical activity, or otherwise will increase the risk of bodily injury above the level inherent in the facilities to be used, or if alcohol is to be served, proof of liability insurance coverage, including liquor liability when applicable, with limits of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence ($3,000,000 in the aggregate) must be provided to Meany Center and name the Board of Regents of the University of Washington as additional insured before approval for the requested use will be granted.

18. EQUIPMENT LIABILITY

Renter is fully liable for equipment damaged during rental except to the extent of demonstrated negligence by Meany Center.

19. CONDITION OF HALL

Renter assumes responsibility for condition of Meany Center. All spaces used must be left clean and orderly. It is the Rental Client's responsibility for disposing of left-over materials, signage, food wastes, etc. in the provided receptacles. If extra cleaning and/or maintenance are required as a result of non-compliance with this policy, Renter is responsible for costs at $50 per labor hour plus equipment charges necessary for cleanup.

20. COPYRIGHTS, RELEASES AND TAXES

- A. Renter agrees to obtain all necessary performing rights and licenses, and to pay any applicable royalties, taxes and other fees associated with the event.
- B. Renter agrees to defend, indemnify, and to hold harmless Meany Center against all claims, demands, costs and expenses arising by reason of any alleged infringement or violation of any copyright or proprietary right from the User's event.
- C. Renter agrees to contact appropriate tax authorities regarding the applicability of the state and local taxes on Renter's event and to pay such tax(s) as required.
- D. If an event is to be recorded in any way, Renter must obtain the appropriate releases from all participants. Prior approval from University Marketing is required to conduct commercial filming or photography on the UW campus. Please contact University Marketing & Communications at 206-221-7041 for more information.
<http://www.washington.edu/marketing/filming-on-campus/>

21. DEFAULTS

If Renter fails to comply with the Schedule of Payments in the Estimate of Charges, or with the terms and conditions contained herein and in the UUF, or with any other applicable University policies or procedures, then Meany Center reserves the right to cancel any pending Renter reservation of Meany Center facilities with a minimum of twenty-four hour notice to Renter. At the time of such cancellation, Renter forfeits all prepayments and/or deposits already received by Meany Center. Additionally, Meany Center will not honor future reservation requests from Renter unless and until all outstanding Renter debts and fees to Meany Center have been paid in full.

22. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Renter nor Meany Center shall be liable to the other party for failure to perform an obligation hereunder when performance of such obligation is rendered impossible due to damage or destruction of Meany Hall, orders or regulations of public authorities, labor disputes, civil tumult, epidemic, pandemic, Act of God, or any cause which both was beyond the control of and is not remediable by the party seeking to exercise this provision.

23. INDEMNIFICATION

- A. Renter agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the University of Washington, its regents, officers, agents and employees, from and against any and all claims, demands, losses, liabilities, costs, or expenses of any nature whatsoever arising from or as a result of use or occupancy of Meany Center for the Performing Arts by Renter and Renter's agents or employees, provided that such claims, demands, losses, liabilities, costs, or expenses are due or are claimed to be due to to (i) Renter has infringed any U.S. patent, trade secret, trademark, or copyright of any third party, or (ii) the negligent acts or omissions of User and User's agents or employees.
- B. The University of Washington agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Renter, Renter's officers, agents, and employees, from and against any and all claims, demands, losses, liabilities, costs, or expenses of any nature whatsoever, including all claims, demands, losses liabilities, costs, or expenses against the User, for property damages or personal injuries due or claimed to be due to the negligent acts or omissions of the University of Washington, its regents, officers, agents, or employees.

MEANY CENTER
KAG Theater
(1201 seats + 4)

Meany Center for the Performing Arts
(Rental Agreement- Exhibit 4)
RECEPTION/SPECIAL EVENT INFORMATION

Receptions are at the discretion of the facility. All requests for receptions in Meany Center must be made to the Director of Audience Services at 206-543-2010, bnancy@uw.edu at least four (4) weeks in advance of the event. Please be prepared to provide specific information such as date, time, number of guests, caterer, etc.

Maximum reception attendance will vary based on event details and location. All required food and alcohol permits must be completed and submitted to the appropriate parties at least two (2) weeks in advance of the event.

Catering:

Meany Center puts no restrictions on the choice of caterer except that they have a current state license. Meany does have a list of caterers who have previously worked at Meany Center available upon request and the University of Washington has an in-house caterer (Bay Laurel Catering).

All food served on University premises must meet applicable health standards. Food offered for consumption must be:

- Obtained from approved wholesale or retail sources.
- Prepared in an approved location, e.g., restaurant, bakery, or approved campus food service.
- Prepared and served by persons with valid health permits (food worker cards) obtainable from the Seattle-King County Health Department.
- Processed, stored, and transported by methods which effectively prevent microbial growth, contamination, or adulteration.

Food Permit Information:

Groups wishing to provide food for their members, guests and/or the public must file a TEMPORARY FOOD SERVICES EVENT APPLICATION with UW Environmental Health and Safety at least two weeks before the planned event.

To apply for a Temporary Food Permit, you must have a UWNetID. If you do not have one, Meany's Director of Audience Services will assist once all information is known including the following:

- Hours Served
- Number of people attending
- Food Provider – Caterer or Food Handler (Food Handler Cards)
 - If food is not being provided by a caterer, all food must be handled by an individual with a current Food Handler Card. Information required for completion of permit includes FH Name, FH Permit ID, FH Permit Source, FH Permit Expiration date and a photocopy of the actual permit.
- Foods to be served - where they food will be obtained, kitchen where prepared.

Meany Center for the Performing Arts
(Rental Agreement- Exhibit 4)
RECEPTION/SPECIAL EVENT INFORMATION

- Cooking Method Information – hot holding, reheat, cold holding.
- Follow the link below to complete permit application.
- <https://www.ehs.washington.edu/workplace/food-safety-program/temporary-food-service-permit>

If you have selected Bay Laurel Catering to provide service, this application is not needed.

Alcohol Permit Information:

Groups wishing to provide complimentary alcoholic beverages for their members, guests and/or the public must file an AUTHORIZATION TO APPLY FOR A BANQUET PERMIT TO SERVE ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES from the University of Washington and obtain a State of Washington BANQUET PERMIT from the State Liquor & Cannabis Board. Alcoholic beverages may be served only as part of a planned program in the area identified on the banquet permit and can only be served on a complimentary basis. Make sure the time frame listed on the application covers uncorking as well as the actual reception time frame. No drinks can be served past the time listed on the permit.

Required Steps:

- Minimum of two weeks before the event, complete an AUTHORIZATION TO APPLY FOR A BANQUET PERMIT form found online at:
<https://depts.washington.edu/sprogram/alcohol-service/alcohol-service-form/>
- Receive an e-mail in return stating that your application has been approved by the UW and instructions to purchase the actual BANQUET PERMIT from the WA State Liquor & Cannabis Board. The cost is $10/permit
- Apply for the BANQUET PERMIT online at: <http://www.liq.wa.gov/licensing/banquet-permits>
- Applicant brings the UW Approval email and the WA State BANQUET PERMIT to Meany Center for the event; Meany staff will post at the location of the alcoholic beverage service on the event date.
- Alcohol may not be served at the event unless both permits are posted at the bar.

Set up:

After consulting with you regarding set up configurations, we will propose a ground plan for your initial approval. The final layout must be approved by the Meany Center Director of Audience Services Manager and the campus Fire Marshall five working days prior to event.

Banners:

Sponsor banners can be hung in the lobby. Best placement is directly across from the front doors. Optimal banner size: Horizontal – 10'W x 4'H or Vertical – 4' W x 8'H.
